About Me

Hello! My name is Sally and I am the Director at Renown Kindergarten. Working in Early Childhood Education has been a lifelong passion for me and I am lucky enough to work alongside these future scientists, explorers, artists, politicians, performers and amazing citizens on a daily basis. My love of literacy is one that I take great pride in sharing with the children. You can often find me with a classic fairy tale in hand or teaching the basics of reading and writing.

As teachers we have the important role of intertwining concrete learning with a play based curriculum, one which encourages risk taking, exploration, discovery and wonder. I believe that children should be encouraged to question and challenge societal norms and that as leading educators we need to be active members within the community, promoting diversity and inclusion for all children and their families. I am incredibly proud of the work that Renown has achieved since joining the Being Equal Pilot in 2018.
